From Deviation to Redemption

In my solitude I stood alone longing for someone to weep for me... but I only saw the tears of my valiant sword and spear.

A warrior poet from Bani Tamim, who bore witness to the poverty and drought that befell his tribe, in the early beginnings of the Islamic state, so he was obliged to wield his sword raiding the caravans of the rich merchants to give the needy, a crime for which the authorities deemed him an outlaw, so he escaped to Persia and met Sa'eed Bin Othman who convinced him to join the Muslim army heading to conquer Khorasan.

Drama / Historical / Biography / Poetry / Epic / Romance / Islamic / Religious / Battles

Malik Bin Al Rayb is a drama series that highlights the life of a poet from Bani Tamim tribe and the historical period in which he, his family and tribe lived. The series begins from his birth time when his tribe lived in poverty, drought and dryness. He countered that by raiding the trade caravans, which belonged to the rich and taking whatever he could from them to give to the poor and needy.

This would raise the anger of the authorities against him and his partners in the newly-established Islamic state so they decide to hunt them down, which forces him to flee to Persia. There, he meets with Sa'eed Bin Othman, who convinces him to join the Muslim army heading for Khorasan.

The series introduces us to the economic, political, social and cultural environment of that era extending between 10 and 60 H, as well as the traditions and customs that governed the lives of Arab tribes, including Bani Tamim.

Love stories are also explored especially Bin Al Rayb's romantic relationship with Mayya, in addition to the love affair between Etab and Zaid.
