Summary

Between the warnings of the Gypsy fortune teller Nazma, and the departure of the Gypsy Sablo away from his people to the valley, a story filled with fear and mystery and the ghost of imminent evil that casts a pall over the people of the valley to shake their peaceful simple life, only to wake up and find that they have become a part of the city that crawled to them and invaded them with its expansion. It's a disturbing journey, a story of love and beauty between seduction and temptations, which announce themselves through a crime that remains a mystery in the life of the valley and its people.

Dramatic Plot

This series depicts people in their age that crushes innocence, simplicity, and natural human relations in their safe place, through events and characters painted by the novel "The aftermath of the last storms" by the Jordanian novelist Jamal Naji, which won the State's honorary award in 1989. Little by little, life find its way to the valley of the Gypsies, and storms blow in all its corners, carrying the actions of Abu Al-Laith, Nizar, and their gangs who assault Bahaj, the beautiful Gypsy woman, and so Keyaz, Sablo, Hajeer, Jaber, and other residents of the valley find themselves in the face of the last storms.

Production Value

This series was filmed with the latest equipment and devices that not only introduce the concept of portable cameras, but also represent the cinematic formula of visual formation. The costume and accessories design were unlike anything done before in social drama series.
